Hail did considerable damage to tobacco for Jas. H. Woods, John B. Foster and W. A. Harney in the storm Thursday evening. All were carrying hail insurance in the Henry Clay Company, represented by R. M. Newland, and so are well protected.

Splendid Address to Farmers

State Secretary R. L. Barnett, of the Farmers' Union, spoke to a large and enthusiastic assemblage of farmers at the court house here Wednesday afternoon. He was introduced by local President R. E. Gaines in a neat speech, and then followed with one of the most instructive and illuminating addresses on the purposes of this great organization. Barnett is thoroughly in love with the organization and its work and is injecting great enthusiasm and interest in its success wherever he appears.

Bailey, Lincoln's sheep inspector, looking over the flocks at this section. He found them all in splendid shape with not a trace of scabies among them. There was a report that about 600 sheep had been shipped in here from Adair, Casey and Wayne counties, which were infected. These flocks were mostly scattered in the West End, being distributed about as follows: O. M. Back 108; J. P. Riffe 270 and C. K. Young 300. A careful examination of these flocks, however, showed that there is not the slightest indication of scabies among them.

Great Things at Brodhead Fair

Read the big advertisement of the Hoaglan Hippodrome, which will be one of the big attractions at the Brodhead fair this year. Secretary Hart and his able corps of assistants are working harder than ever before to make the Rockcastle Fair Association exhibition a big success this year and there can be no doubt that the Brodhead fair this year will be bigger and better than ever before in every respect. Brodhead fair comes just before Stanford's great fair, and the local boosters will attend this sister fair in a body to tell about the good things here.

Marshall Bullitt, of Louisville, has been appointed Solicitor General of the United States by President Taft. Bullitt is one of the few original Taft men to get the job.

Adams—Terrill

Lancaster, June 27.

At 2:30 Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams, their daughter, Miss Callie, became the bride of Mr. Oliver Ural Terrill, of Jenkins, Ky. The bride's pastor, Rev. O. P. Bush, most impressively sealed the marriage vows for them by the ring ceremony. The only attendant was little Miss Isabelle Terrill, the groom's niece who carried the ring upon a calla lily tied with an immense tulle bow. It was the same wedding ring that had united the groom's parents and it made their marriage more sacred and dear. The bride, a fascinating blonde, was most becomingly gowned in a blue tailored whip cord with hat to match and a massive bouquet of pink roses. She is an exceptionally popular young lady, and her many Lancaster friends were loathe to give her up even to the man of her choice, and he is certainly to be congratulated upon securing such an attractive and capable helpmeet. The groom is a native of this county being a son of the late Mr. McClelland Terrill and on the maternal side is related to the influential Walker family. He is assistant cashier of a prosperous bank in Jenkins. The newly wedded pair left at once in an auto by way of Richmond for the groom's home where a newly furnished and inviting domicile was awaiting their occupancy. The number of gifts of cut glass, silver, linen, etc., gave evidence of the popularity of the happy couple.

The following were out of town guests: Mrs. Joseph Adams and daughter, Miss Virginia Adams, of Lexington; Mrs. Sarah Maret, Shelbyville; Misses Ida May and Elizabeth Adams, of Mt. Vernon; Mr. Charles Adams, the bride's brother, Yarnallton; Miss Patsy Lee Prather and Mr. Willis Kennedy Richmond, and Mr. and Mrs. John Boner, of Camp Nelson.
